LOCAL NEWS.

If you see it in the Townsman, it's news to be relied upon; if it is news and so, you'll see it in the Townsman.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller spent Sunday with relatives in Lowell.

O. P. Chase is spending his vacation at his old home in Springfield, Vt.

Joseph Soutar is at present on a business trip through Pennsylvania.

Edgar Sisco of Northampton has been visiting relatives in the Vale during the past week.

Miss Mary C. Findley of the Andover Press office is enjoying her vacation of a few weeks.

John W. Bell spent Saturday and Sunday with his daughter, Miss Alice, in Bethlehem, N. H.

Frank M. Smith, driver of Horse No. 1 has been confined to his home this week by illness.

Rev. George E. Lovejoy of Lawrence will preach in the Free church next Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Carlton are spending a two weeks' vacation in Yarmouth, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Allen left town on Wednesday for a ten days' visit with friends and relatives in Holyoke.

William C. Crowley wishes to announce that his shoe store will be closed every Wednesday afternoon during July and August.

Arthur Clemons of the U. S. ship Colorado returned to his ship Wednesday after a ten days' leave of absence spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Clemons.

An unknown woman was locked up by Officer Jaquith last Friday evening about seven o'clock for drunkenness but was later released and sent to her home in Boston.

At the recent lawn party and sale held by the Helping Hand society of the Free church, the phonograph selections were given under the direction of Thomas Gorrie.

Joseph A. Dennison, an old Andover man and at present Assistant District Attorney of Suffolk county, spent Monday with friends and acquaintances in town.

The exterior of Carter's block on Main street is receiving a fresh coat of paint this week. The color is a unique grey, giving a granite effect and is being put on by James Wood.

The Ladies' club of the Andover Grange will be entertained at the home of Miss Lottie Hill in Frye Village this evening. This is out of the usual program of the Grange and a pleasant time is assured. Miss Hill will be assisted by Mrs. John Morrison.

If you are troubled with dandruff and your hair is falling out consult Miss C. A. Wallingford, specialist in scalp treatment and facial massage, shampooing (have your hair dried in a natural manner) Marcel wave, manicure and chiropody. Rooms 420-427 Bay State building, Lawrence. Tel. 155. M.

The condition of Jeremiah Kennedy of Salem, who was severely injured in the collision near Martin's pond last week when an electric car struck the automobile in which he and three other men were riding, is much improved although he is still in a serious condition at Dr. Clarke's sanatorium. One of Mr. Kennedy's legs was badly broken and it was necessary to remove all the bones in and around the knee. Three doctors have been in attendance since the accident.

The last of the old commons buildings which have been closely linked with the history of Phillips academy will be torn down during the summer. No new buildings will replace them and the land which they have occupied for about 100 years will probably never be built upon again. It has been the aim of the present principal to do away with the antiquated buildings as soon as accommodations for the occupants could be found elsewhere. This has at last been obtained through arrangements with the seminary authorities. Old alumni who visit their alma mater will greatly miss the old buildings even if the recent occupants will gladly see them go. Oliver Wendell Holmes once occupied a room in the buildings which now yield to modern requirements.

The Fourth of July committee held its last meeting on Monday evening for the purpose of disposing of the money which is left over from the celebration. Chairman Andrew McTernan presided and there were ten members of the committee present. The report of treasurer William C. Crowley was read and showed that after every bill had been paid there would be a small balance left.

James Perkins of Andover has recently purchased a Berkshire boar from Hood Farm, Lowell. The animal carries very rich blood. He is by a son of Hood Farm Top Gem, the sow that won first in the class at the Indiana State fair last fall. His dam is Baroness Columbus, a full sister to Hood Farm Rex, the phenomenal show boar of 1905 that won first prize at the Ohio, Kentucky and Illinois State fairs.

George P. Pillsbury of Andover has brought suit against Patrick P. Collins and John J. Collins of North Andover in an action of contract. The ad damnum is $300. Knox and Walsh appear for Pillsbury.

Thomas Bentley, the well known fishing trip organizer announces, that he will conduct a party sometime later this month and hopes that all who wish to go will see him at once as the party is limited and there are several applications in already. The exact date of the trip has not been settled.

Alexander Ritchie of this town was unanimously elected captain of the Lawrence Canoe club at a meeting of that organization held last night for the purpose of electing a successor to ex-Captain Roope, who resigned in order to enter the railway postal service. The members discussed the canoe trip which will be made down the Merrimack river next Saturday, and refreshments were served.

The Junior C. E. society of the South church enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon at the Pines, Groveland, on Wednesday. About 40 of the children, accompanied by the superintendent, Miss Florence I. Abbott, left the square on a special electric car over the Haverhill line at half past two and the trip to the pleasant grove was made in good time. The children then spent the time in playing games and other amusements and in the early evening the return trip was started. All arrived home safe and sound before dark.

POLITICAL

Bryan Not Yet a Candidate.

Upon his arrival in London from Norway W. J. Bryan gave to the newspaper correspondents a formal statement, in which he said he was unwilling to consider himself as a presidential candidate at this time. A reception at New York had been proposed by the Commercial Travelers' league before the action of any of the recent state conventions, and it must not be regarded in the light of an endorsement of nomination. He said he did not regard the action of the state convention as binding upon them or upon the party of their state. This would be unfair to other men, mentioning Hearst, Bailey and Folk, as possible candidates. The question of ability could not be determined so far in advance. He was not willing to "sit on a stool and look pretty for two years." He preferred to be in a position to say and write and do what he thought best.

Some jealousy developed between the eastern and western Bryan reception committees, and a conference was held at New York in the hope of adjusting the differences. Senator Stone of Missouri particularly objected to having Governor Folk make the chief address of welcome. There was some talk that Mr. Bryan would be persuaded to follow his original plan of visiting New Zealand and then returning across the Pacific to San Francisco. His immediate plans include a tour of Holland, a trip up the Rhine, a visit to Switzerland and Italy, France and Spain and attendance at the peace congress.

Tawney on Appropriations.
Chairman Tawney of the house appropriation committee has issued a statement, of the annual government expense account showing for what purposes the various increases were made. Deducting from the total the canal reimbursement, the sinking fund and the deficiencies chargeable to former years he finds that the actual expenses for the current year are only $740,723, 883.

President Praises Congress.
In a formal statement President Roosevelt said he would not be afraid to compare the record of the first session of the Fifty-ninth congress with any in our history. He thought that the legislation had been along lines of real constructive statesmanship, mentioning the rate, meat, pure food, free alcohol, statehood and consular reform bills. He thought it noteworthy that not a single measure had been enacted that would warrant, in closest scrutiny, the calling of doubtful propriety. The president sent to Senator Beveridge the pen with which he signed the meat inspection measure and in a letter said that Beveridge was the man who first called his attention to the packing house abuses.

Speaker Cannon said the session was the most important in thirty years.

The President's Fourth of July Speech.
On the village green at Oyster Bay President Roosevelt stood for almost an hour in the pouring rain while delivering to his fellow townsmen a Fourth of July address. He took for his text the words of Lincoln urging gentleness and charity. He spoke of the public and business inequities brought to light within the past year or two, but said there was no warrant for growing hysterical about it. Above all, he would avoid the vindictiveness of the demagogue. He thought congress had accomplished so much as it had because they had not tried to do too much and had approached the task free from rancor or hatred.

EXECUTIVE

Treasury Surplus $26,187,150.
A surplus of $26,187,150 is shown by the treasury department's statement of the government's financial transactions during the fiscal year ended June 30. The receipts were $594,591,714, being $31,490,855 more than in the prior year. The increase is in customs and internal revenues. The expenditures for army, navy, pensions, interest, civil and miscellaneous were comparatively lower than during 1904-05, but were more than offset by the increased expenditures of $23,504,198 for public works, including the Panama canal disbursement.

Canal Commissioners Appointed.

The senate having adjourned without confirming the nominees to the Panama canal commission, the president announced the appointment of a new commission as follows: Theodore P. Shonts, chairman; John F. Stevens, Charles E. Magoon, Peter C. Hains, brigadier general U. S. A., retired; Rear Admiral Mordcaai T. Endicott, civil engineer U. S. N., and Benjamin M. Herrod. This includes all but two of the old commission—namely, General Ernst, who is succeeded by Mr. Stevens, and J. B. Bishop, who may be continued as secretary. The salaries remain as heretofore, Shonts and Stevens getting $30,000 each and the rest $7,500 each. Magoon receives also $10,000 as governor of the zone. The new commission was already on its way to Panama when the appointment was announced.

Panama Canal Bonds Offered.

Secretary Shaw has announced that bids would be received up to July 20 for the new issue of $30,000,000 bonds for the construction of the Panama canal under the act of June 28, 1902, and supplemented by the act of Dec. 21, 1905. The bonds will be dated Aug. 1, 1906, and will bear interest at 2 per cent. They will be issued in denominations of $20, $100 and $1,000 coupons and like amounts of registered bonds, together with one of the $10,000 denomination. They are redeemable in ten years and will run for thirty and will be available as a basis of national bank circulation. All citizens have the equal right to subscribe. The bonds will be ready for delivery about Aug. 1.

From Pasture to Package.
Secretary of Agriculture Wilson immediately after congress adjourned announced his purpose to enforce thoroughly the new meat inspection law and said he would go personally to Chicago to organize the inspection force in that city. He said every packing house would have to satisfy him before he would pass it as sanitary and that a civil service commission already had a number of inspectors selected. Supervision and inspection would be extended from the pasture to the package, and the stamp upon the can would be "a guarantee not only of the healthfulness of the animal, but also that the product was prepared in sanitary surroundings and with the addition of no deleterious chemical or preservative."

Root Sails For South America.

Secretary of State Root sailed from New York on the cruiser Charleston July 4 to attend the Pan-American congress in Brazil and to visit all the principal ports of South America. The secretary is accompanied by his wife, son and daughter. Their first stop will be San Juan, Porto Rico. The five members of the Pan-American commission sailed July 2 on the Byron for Rio de Janeiro. Mr. Root will advise the commission, but will not take an active part in the congress. His aim will be to bring about better feeling between the United States and all the South American republics.

LEGAL-CRIMINAL

Hardly Raids Gambling Houses.

The gambling casinos at French Lick Springs and West Baden, Ind., said to be owned by Thomas Taggart, the chairman of the Democratic national committee, have been closed by order of Governor Hanly through the county sheriff and a large number of deputies. All of the costly gambling devices were seized, and many of the people found in the casinos were arrested and held as witnesses. Attorney General Miller took charge of the prosecution in person. He at once filed an application for a receiver for the hotel properties and asked for an injunction on the charge of law violation. It is particularly charged that children as well as grown people were allowed to use the gambling machines in these places.

Mr. Taggart explained that these raids had nothing to do with his hotel properties, but referred only to buildings which the hotel company had leased for certain sports, with an expressed proviso against gambling, and that they had gone to the courts in an effort to dispossess the tenants.

Railway Fares Refunded.

In the hearing of the rebate case against the Chicago and Alton railway at Chicago the traffic manager of the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger company testified that whenever a packing company employee purchased a ticket from this railroad he received a receipt for the money paid and that subsequently $4,000 worth of these receipts were refunded by the company.

Vineless Potatoes Barred.

The postmaster general issued a fraud order against the Vineless Potato company of Chicago, which had been advertising a substance at $4.50 per bottle, known as "potatine," which was guaranteed to produce as many potatoes in a bin of sawdust, without vines or foliage, as could be grown on an acre of ground within a period of sixty days.

Retrial For Barrington.

The supreme court of Missouri has transferred to the United States supreme court for rehearing the case of E. Seymour Barrington, known as "Lord" Barrington, who was under sentence to be hanged July 26 for the murder of his benefactor, James P. McKann. Barrington claimed that the mind of the public had been poisoned against him at St. Louis and that he had been denied a change of venue.

Lodge's Secretary Sentenced.

Judge De Courcy, in the supreme court at Boston, imposed a sentence of ten months in the house of correction upon Robert G. Proctor, formerly Senator Lodge's secretary, who was convicted of misappropriating a $225 contribution to the Republican campaign fund of 1904. A stay of execution was granted, however, and the prisoner was released on bail. In response to a subpoena Senator Lodge, on the same day, appeared before the grand jury to tell what he knew about contributions to the Republican fund.

Held For Eight Hour Violation.

On the complaint of the business agent of the Carpenters' union at Boston William H. Ellis, a contractor, was held on a charge of violating the federal eight hour law. The charge is that Ellis willfully caused several of his carpenters to work nine hours on June 13. The charge is admitted by Ellis, who says the men were willing to work the extra time.

Philadelphia Ice Men Held.

Thirteen heads of ice companies in Philadelphia were held in $1,500 bail each to answer to the charge of conspiracy through a combination to raise prices. Similar proceedings have been started at Pittsburgh, Boston, Indianapolis and several other cities.

A Federal Ice Trust Hunt.

The department of justice is preparing to take action against an alleged combination of ice manufacturers and dealers of Washington, and District Commissioner West has instructed corporation counsel to investigate whether criminal prosecution would be justified. In the meantime the city is suffering from a serious ice famine due to the slowness of shipments from Maine.

Millionaire Hartje Arrested.

The sensational development in the Hartje divorce trial at Pittsburgh was the arrest of Hartje himself, who sought the divorce; John H. Wellshones, his closest friend, and Clifford Hooe, the negro coachman, who is already in jail. The charge made by District Attorney Robb is that of conspiracy to defame the fair name of Mrs. Hartje, the defendant. It was said that a young woman had also been arrested and would add important testimony. A woman has confessed to having forged the love letters that Hartje swore were written by his wife to the coachman, Tom Madine. Other rich men and a pretty young woman are to be implicated in the conspiracy charge.

Toledo Ice Men Out of Jail.

The circuit court at Toledo suspended the workhouse sentence of Messrs. Miller, Waters and Breining, the ice trust men who have been in jail two weeks while their lawyers have been fighting to get their cases in circuit court. Bond in the sum of $5,000 was furnished by each of the men. All five of the convicted ice men are now out on bond.

Lawyers Thomas H. Tracy and Clarence Brown, who were defending the prisoners, were sentenced by Judge Kinkade of the common pleas court of Lucas county to ten days in jail for contempt of court. A fierce arraignment of the men preceded the sentence, and the whole proceeding came as an entire surprise. These lawyers, who are among the most prosperous of that locality, had intimated to Judge Kinkade that they understood he would be lenient if their clients would plead guilty. The judge resented the intimation and said it was "as false as hell."

The Case Stirs Up Scandal.

The first of an expected series of afterclaps of the Thaw murder case occurred early in the week when the den of Alford Short, a New York clubman and one of the Four Hundred, was raided and Short arrested during an attempt to get away over the house-tops. A book was found there with the names and addresses of a number of young girls, catalogued as to size, looks, etc. A Norwegian woman by the name of Barbara Livingston was also arrested as an accomplice in the downfall of two young girls who have told the police of their relations with Short. The girls are of respectable families and were enticed into Short's apartments by the woman with promises of employment.

There were few new developments in the Thaw case, he continuing to be hopeful and cheered by frequent visits from his wife. The lawyers on both sides are scouring for scandal, much to the delight of Mrs. Grundy. A contest began over the alleged existence of an affidavit signed by Mrs. Thaw, which would furnish a motive. District Attorney Jerome, who was away on his vacation when the shooting of White occurred, said on his return that the case would have to take its natural course and that there were no less than seventeen other murder cases waiting trial which would take precedence of Thaw's.

No Prison For Rebaters.
The United States circuit court at New York has dismissed the indictments against Vice President Guilford and Traffic Manager Pomeroy of the New York Central railroad and C. Goodloe and Edgar and Edwin Earle, sugar merchants of Detroit, charging them with conspiracy to violate the Elkins rebating act, punishable with imprisonment. The indictments against the railroad officials are held to be good so far as they are punishable by fine.

THE DOG NEVER KNEW.

From the Minneapolis Journal.
Abe Trot, a well known character of Peak's Island, Me., was on his way to the woods to cut down some trees, carrying an axe on his shoulder, and a small terrier dog following at his heels. They espied a woodchuck, to which the dog gave chase and drove into a stone wall, where action commenced at once. Abe's sympathies being with the dog, he decided to take a hand and help him. So, putting himself in position with the axe above the dog, he waited for the extraction of the chuck. Soon an opportunity offered and Abe struck, but at the same time the woodchuck gathered himself up and pulled the dog in far enough for him to receive the blow, and the dog was killed.

For years after, in relating the story, Abe would always add: "And that dog don't know to this day but what that woodchuck killed him."

Suburbanite (to visitor)—Oh, how are you? Come, right Mr. Don't mind the dog.

Visitor—But won't he bite?

Suburbanite—That's just what I want to see. I only bought that watch dog this morning.

The Day of Adulteration.

The statement issued by Dr. Harrington of the State board of health, relative to the quality of material found in various brands of canned meats, is a startling expose of the kind of food that an unsuspecting public is consuming. And yet, who has any reason for surprise at this condition of things? What is there today entering into the everyday life of the people that is free from adulteration? From the morning bath to the cotton mixed all-wool blanket that covers at night, it is one continuous performance of adulteration. Hardly an article of apparel goes upon the body that is what it pretends to be. The morning coffee is mixed with some substitute, the sugar is partly cornstarch, the salt has little savor, the milk is suspected of close relationship with the pump, and so it goes all through the list of everything that makes up life.

The business man goes to his daily work, and spends his long day studying what? To make his goods better or to give larger return for his customers' money? Far from it, rather to see if in some way, by some process, a little poorer material won't pass muster in the finished product, and a little less value won't even advanced price. Taking the writer's business as a sample, it is a true statement, that not a single brand of paper on the market for twenty years, will today stand the tests that could be placed upon it two decades ago.

A "substitute" is the demand of the hour in every line. Every storekeeper yields to the demands of competition and does his share in promoting the trend. It is easy and popular to shy bricks at the "big fellows" who offend, but how many of the men who do business are entirely guiltless?

The fact is, adulterated food is but an incident in the whole great and fearful readjustment of honest standards. False is the ring of too much of the life all around us, and the present agitation for a return to honest count, full measure, and a square deal, will fall far short of accomplishing its full mission if it fails to reach many forms of adulteration not sealed in tin cans. Adulterated foods may be poisoning the systems of the American people, but the moral fibre of those same people is being more seriously affected by the whole adulterated environment in which we are living.

Three Men in a Motor Car.

"Yesterday, a plaything of the few; today, a servant of the many; tomorrow, the necessity of humanity." Thus closes the "foreword" of an interesting automobile story, by Winthrop E. Scarritt, entitled "Three Men in a Motor Car," and placed upon the editor's desk by our townsman, Mr. Harlan W. Whipple.

The book is entertaining, and, more than that, is full of instructive suggestions for improving conditions in the automobile field. Not the least of the interesting features is the very effective description of the early experiences of Mr. Whipple with the automobile. The book makes it very clear that the road that has been travelled before the smooth running era of the present high grade automobile was a long and very ragged one. Mr. Whipple was one of the half dozen pioneers in the United States, and the adventures of the author of "Three Men in a Motor Car" might be taken as an automobile autobiography of Mr. Whipple himself. The book has particular charm for the automobile enthusiast, and will interest many other readers.

Editorial Cinders.

A well known citizen registers a very emphatic complaint against the weights for which he is charged in settling his ice bill. He says he is much less disturbed over the high price than he is over the short weights. It would certainly seem like robbing the mourners to combine both burdens upon the ice consumers this year, and we can only suggest a prompt complaint to the nearest court where short weight can be proven. It would be a judge whose temperament did not need ice who would fail to deal pretty severely with the man convicted of giving short weight of the present high priced luxury of frozen comfort.

The enjoyment that many people had last year out of the excellent baseball games played on the playground during the summer months, abundantly justifies the effort now being made to arrange a series of games this summer. Baseball is the great American game, and nothing can quite take its place as a summer entertainment. "Bat her up" on the playground.

Y. P. S. C. E. Lawn Party.

A very pleasant and profitable lawn party was held under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the South church last evening on the spacious green north of the church. The grounds were brilliantly illuminated with Chinese lanterns and electric lights, and made a beautiful and pleasing contrast to the greenery of the hedges and trees which are scattered here and there.

The party was attended by a large gathering of church folk and town's people, and the sales at all the tables were very gratifying to those who had the affair in charge.

A phonograph operated by George Laing of North Andover furnished music during the evening, and the varied program of songs, marches and solos added to the pleasure of the evening.

The various tables and those who were in charge were: Ice cream, Malcolm McTernan, Fred Cheever; punch, William Foster, Miss Marion Low; grab bag, Miss Jennie Hunter; candy table, Miss Helen White, Miss Helena Lindsay; salads, Miss Louise Hardy, Miss Florence I. Abbott, Miss Mary Caldwell.

The social committee of the Christian Endeavor society, consisting of the following, had the direct charge of the party: Jesse West, chairman; William Foster, Malcolm McTernan, Miss Fannie Erving, Miss Jennie Hunter and Miss Laura Farnham.

To Hold Convention.

There will be a county convention of Young People's C. E. Societies of Essex county, under the auspices of the Charles Perry Mills Local Union of Christian Endeavor, on Labor day, in the North church, Newburyport. Every society in the county will be invited.

The morning session will commence at 10 o'clock and the moderator will be Rev. Leslie Campbell Greeley. The topic will be "Local Unions."

12 to 2—Lunch and pilgrimage.
Afternoon, 2 to 5 p. m.—Rev. Arthur W. Cleaves, moderator.
Junior rally, in charge of Miss Mary Hughes. Topic, "Relation of Christian Endeavor to the Sunday school." Prayer meeting and Lookout conferences. County work.

5 to 7 p. m.—Supper and social hour.
Evening session, 7 to 9 p. m.—Rev. Howard S. Wilkinson, moderator. Consecration service, "Christian Citizenship."

An excellent list of speakers and conference leaders will be present. It is expected that about 500 delegates will be present.

Election of Officers.

At the meeting of the local Y. P. S. C. E. society the following named persons were elected officers and chairmen of the several committees for the ensuing term:

Officers: President, Miss Adele Matthews; vice president, Frank Juhlmann; secretary, Miss Anna S. Davies; treasurer, Mrs. Eldon E. Fleury; cor. secretary, Mrs. William Shaw; organist, Miss Isabel Miller; asst. organist, Miss Laura Petty. Committees: Welcome, Miss Estella Herrick; watch, Miss Lizzie M. Row; social, Mrs. George R. Miller; missionary and temperance, Herbert Clarke; flower, Mrs. Mary Herrick; junior, Miss Rosalie Wood.

Bricklayers Struck.

The bricklayers employed in the construction of the John-Esther memorial building on the Abbot Academy grounds by W. R. Wilcutt Son & Company of Boston went on strike recently, with a demand of an increase in wages, with a Saturday half holiday being refused by the contractors. There were eight men involved in the strike, some of whom came from Boston and the remainder were Lawrence men.

The workmen were all skilled and were receiving $4.50 per day of eight hours, working on Saturday afternoon. They demanded $4.80 per day with a half day off on Saturday and after thoughtful consideration by the contractors the demands were refused. The men immediately left for their homes. Their places were soon filled, however, and the work is at present progressing rapidly.

Chimney Fire.

About eight o'clock on Tuesday morning the local fire engine company was called to extinguish a chimney fire in the large tenement house owned by William H. Joyett of Haverhill, situated at the corner of Main and Harding streets. The fire was burning briskly when the men arrived and as the chimney is a large old-fashioned one, considerable time and care was taken in putting out the blaze. No damage resulted either from fire or water.

Deaths.

In Baille St. James, Charlotte County, New Brunswick, Thursday, July 5, William Milligan, formerly of this town. Funeral Sunday and interment in Spring Grove cemetery.
In Andover, Monday July 9, Mrs. Mary Ann Duffy, aged 56 years. Funeral Thursday and interment in St. James' cemetery, Haverhill.
In Lowell, Sunday, July 8, George N. Pasho, formerly of this town, age 70 years. Funeral Wednesday and interment in the South cemetery.
In Princeton, Sunday, July 8, Miss Anne Woodbury Phillips, formerly of this town, at the age of 73 years.

Our Fishing Trip.

The grand fishing excursion, unless my dates I mix, was held last Monday, July 9. The date was, nineteen six. We started out from Ballard Vale in numbers not a few. Perhaps you were one of the crowd, if so, why this means you. We fished from morn all through the day until the set of sun. And when we finished, one and all voted they'd had their fun. You ask me how much fish we caught. We got dog-fish, and a mackerel (The kind you call a horse). But all the rest were good to eat. In the "hash house" you'll find worse. A rumor started one time, Of whom I didn't ask it, That "Dick", Charlie and a motor boat Got lost just off Nantasket. Of mishaps only one I'll name And that was towards the last When "Dickie" York just "got the hook" And "got it" hard and fast. Everyone was satisfied And not a man was sick And likewise I have got to hear Of anything like "kick." On a special car we rode in state From the wharf to Wakefield town And everything along the route We treated as our own. At last the trip is over, A memory of the past, But though a memory only With me 'tis one will last. And each one who was on the trip Will echo what I say That "Our Grand Old Deep Sea Fishing Trip" Was a grand red letter day.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

Went to War From Phillips Academy.

Benjamin C. Sparrow, district superintendent of the U. S. life-saving service, died Monday morning at his home in East Orleans. He had been ill for several weeks. He was born in East Orleans, Oct. 9, 1839. He taught school in Eastham, and when the civil war broke out was studying at Phillips Andover academy. Entering the army in 1861, he served until 1864, having been a prisoner at Belle Isle in 1862.

When the life-saving service was established along the Massachusetts coast in 1872 Mr. Sparrow was appointed district superintendent, and his ability in securing discipline and efficiency in this hazardous service, added to his personal daring and excellent judgment during many terrible scenes of shipwreck, retained him in the responsible position until his death.

Supt. Sparrow was a lineal descendant of Richard Sparrow, who landed at Plymouth in the ship Ann and came to Eastham in 1650. He had served on the Orleans school board and had long been recognized as one of the town's leading citizens. He was an influential member of Franklin D. Hammond post, G. A. R. Owing to severe experiences during army life he had been in failing health for several years.

Obituary.

The death of William Milligan, for many years a well known resident of this town, occurred at his former home in Baille St. James, Charlotte County, New Brunswick, last week, after an illness extending over several months with consumption.

The deceased had been employed at the factory of Tyer Rubber Company as a machinist for several years and was very popular with his fellow workmen. He was 34 years of age and is survived by a wife and one child.

The body was brought to Andover and funeral services were held at Christ church on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Frederick Palmer officiating. A large delegation of members of Indian Ridge Rebekekah lodge was present and their service was conducted at the grave, the deceased having been a member of that order.

The bearers were Andrew McTernan, Charles Murphy, Ivan Murch, and Erving Murch. Interment was in Spring Grove cemetery.

GEORGE N. PASHO.

George N. Pasho passed away at his home, 39 Liberty street, Lowell, on last Sunday morning, after an illness of over two years. He was confined to his bed for the past three weeks.

Mr. Pasho was born in this town on March 31, 1836 and spent most of his early life here. For many years he was the local undertaker and also served as sexton of the South church. He resided on Brook street and while there he erected a few houses.

He leaves a wife, nee Stevens, and two daughters, Bertha S. and Annie L., one sister, Mrs. William Hadley of Stoneham and a brother William A. of Dunkirk, N. Y.

The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon at 1.30, services being held at the home in Lowell and conducted by Rev. Frederick Dannels of the Highland Congregational church, and the body was brought to Andover and interred in the South cemetery. Prayers were said at the grave.

ANNE WOODBURY PHILLIPS.

It was very fitting that the funeral service for Miss Anne Woodbury Phillips should take place from Trinity church, as it was over this parish that her first cousin, the late Bishop Brooks, was rector so many years, and it also was there that the deceased had worshipped when she was in town.

Rev. Appleton Grannis, the curate, conducted the service, and a quartet from the regular Trinity choir sang several hymns. The burial took place at Forest Hills cemetery, the exact spot having been chosen by herself, in the lot of her sister, Mrs. Hamilton Willis.

Miss Phillips, who died on July 8 at Princeton, where she had been spending the summer, was a daughter of the late Samuel Phillips of Andover and Sally Allen Swett (Phillips) of Salem. As a near relative of Phillips Brooks she also was connected as closely with the late Wendell Phillips, and other members of an illustrious family which founded both the Academy and Theological school at Andover. Deceased was seventy-three years of age and was born at Newburyport on Christmas Day, 1832.

MRS. MARY ANN DUFFY.

Mrs. Mary Ann Duffy, wife of John Duffy, passed away at her home, 32 Stevens street, Marland Village, late on Monday evening at the age of 50 years. The deceased was a native of Georgetown but had made her home in Andover for many years, her husband being an employee of Marland Mills. Besides her husband, Mrs. Duffy is survived by four small children.

The funeral services were held at St. Augustine's church yesterday morning, high mass of requiem being celebrated at nine o'clock by Rev. Fr. McGowan. The body was taken to Haverhill and interred in St. James' cemetery.

COOK WITH GAS

THESE three words suggest a plan that reduces the drudgery of kitchen work about one-half. It offers a way to tired, worn out housewives to do their work, and still have time for rest, recreation, and permits escape from the hot, grimy stove with all its labor-making features. It means that you can cook better, quicker, and easier than on the best coal or wood stove you can buy. We sell Gas Ranges on easy terms or will give 10 per cent discount for cash.

Andover Guild Defeated.

The St. Augustine baseball team defeated the Andover Guild baseball team Saturday afternoon on the old P. A. Campus, by the score of 6 to 3. The features of the game were the batting of Gray for the visitors and the fielding of Rilly for the locals. The Guild were unable to connect safely with Gray's delivery and scored all their runs in the first inning.

Next Saturday the Guild will play the Puncard baseball team on the playground.

CRICKET

For the second match played on the local cricket grounds Chelsea supplied the fare under most favorable conditions. The outfield would do with the grass cut a little shorter. Lawrence won the toss and elected to bat. Woodcock and Haddon played good cricket. Richards gave a masterly display for 38 got by clean, hard hitting. The score:

MERRIMACK WON FROM EAST BOSTON.

East Boston came here Saturday and notwithstanding the fine innings of Mitchell for 44, were beaten by Merrimack by 116 to 80. Several home players scored heavily, but the best work was done by Ogden and Taylor, the latter also coming off well in bowling by taking 5 for 12. Devlin bowled in fine form for the visitors having 5 for 18. The score:

METHUEN 72; MOHAIR R. 7.

The Methuen cricket eleven defeated the Mohair team at Lowell Saturday afternoon by a score of 72 to 7. The features of the game were the bowling of Eddleson, who took six wickets for one run and that of Ankers, who took three wickets for five runs, and the batting of Hamer and Graydon for Methuen. Obituary.

BERNARD HORKHEIMER

Bernard Horkheimer of Wheeling, West Virginia, met with a very sudden death last Saturday afternoon, being crushed between a platform and a moving freight car.

The deceased was a partner of the well known wool firm of Horkheimer Bros. of Wheeling, West Virginia, and was well known to a number of Vale people on account of the business relations of his firm with the Ballard Vale Mills. He was a man of sterling character, an active church worker and a highly respected business man.

Mr. Horkheimer was 54 years old and leaves a wife and three sons to mourn his loss.

Ballardvale 3; Highlands 2.

Those persons who were expecting to see a battle royal on the Plains were not disappointed when the Ballardvales defeated the strong Highlands of Revere in a hard fought clean contest by a score of 3 to 2.

It was a pitcher's game from beginning to end with the honors in favor of Cronin who held the visitors down to four hits two of them being scratch hits. He was well supported behind the bat by Daley. Hammond and Daley batted well. A fast double play by Metcalf to Hodnett was a feature of the game. For the visitors Heenan pitched good ball but his support was not the best at critical points. F. Tenggren played a good game in left field.

TOWSON HOSPITALITY.

From the Towson Democrat-Journal.
There is no other town in our native State where hospitality is more beautifully shown than in Towson. The writer can testify to that fact from the manner in which he has been treated since he has been mingling among the people. On Tuesday last he had the pleasure of taking breakfast and dining with one of Towson's well known citizens and from close observation he finds that it takes a kind wife and a good cook to complete a successful home, and that home is one of the unique kind. The strawberry shortcake, which was part of the excellent menu, was highly relished by him, and could not be excelled.

Our boys' pant cloth remnants are not the ordinary cotton and shoddy mixtures. They are the finest worsted fabrics and all wool men's wear. Gave. Remnant store, 35 Appleton street, Lawrence.

Two Krupp Sisters to Wed.

The younger daughter of the late German gunmaker, Barbara Krupp, has announced her engagement to Baron von Wilmowsky, son of the governor of Prussian Saxony. This comes close on the heels of the announcement that the older sister, Bertha, is to marry Gustave von Bohlen-Halbach, secretary of the Prussian legation at Rome.

Bertha Krupp. The fortune of the younger sister is estimated at $12,500,000, but she is poor compared to Bertha, whose inherited fortune amounts to $150,000,000. Since her father's death Bertha has managed personally the big gun works.

Tolstoi Criticizes the Douma.

The famous Russian novelist and reformer, Count Tolstoi, in an interview expressed disgust with the work of the Douma. He complained that the proceedings show nothing new and that the parliament is slavishly imitating the west. He compares the Douma to the provincial regions where hats and gowns, out of date in the cities, are worn, saying the speeches are like phonographic reproductions of those in foreign parliaments.

Suffragists Insist on Jail.

Miss Kenney and two other woman suffragists, who were arrested for creating a disturbance at the home of Chancellor Asquith, were surrendered by their bail, and, upon their refusing to promise not to do it again, they were committed to jail for six months after refusing to furnish $250 bail each.

Rojestvensky Pleads Guilty.

The Russian admiral Rojestvensky, addressing the court martial at Cronstadt, took all the blame for the surrender of the gunboat Bedovi to the Japanese and invited the full punishment of the law, which would be death. He did this in the hope of saving the officers who surrendered the gunboat in order to save the life of their wounded commander. It was said by sailors of the Bedovi that Rojestvensky's party had boarded the gunboat with the intention of surrendering instead of trying to escape and that their first act was to hoist the white flag.

Kaiser Has a Grandson.

The firing of 101 guns at noon at Potsdam, Germany, July 4, made known to the people that a son had been born to the wife of Prince Frederick William. Emperor William, who was on his way to Trondheim, received the news by wireless. The emperor had decided that the child, if a boy, should be named Wilhelm and had set the date of Aug. 12 for the christening. All Germany rejoices.

Official Report Blames Jews.

Russian official reports of the Jewish massacre at Bialystok lays the entire blame upon the Jews, on whom is placed the responsibility for a long series of violent attacks upon public officials. On the other hand, the report of the Douma's committee says that no race hatred exists in Bialystok and that the massacre was the result of a deliberate plot by the police.

Premier Goremykin made known his intention of resigning office, and it was reported that he would be succeeded by Yermoloff. Announcement was made of the government's intention of proposing to the Douma a plan to aid the peasants by selling them arable land on easy terms. This scheme does not meet with favor. The Douma has invalidated the election of eleven members from Tambov on the ground of official interference. This throws out all the monarchists but one. Disaffection in the army continues to spread.

COMMERCIAL

A $20,000,000 Dairy Trust.

The formation of the American Farm Products company by some of the leading financiers of the country was announced at New York with a capital of $20,000,000 to start with. The purpose is to control all American dairy products, chickens and eggs. This is probably to be the biggest monopoly ever established if the plans of the projectors are carried out. While the financial headquarters are to be at New York, the general offices will be located at Chicago. It is asserted by those in control that this trust will bring about an increased and uniform price to the producer, a diminished price to the consumer and greatly improve both the quality of products and the method of distribution. Some of the capitalists interested are Thomas F. Ryan, Levi P. Morton, Harry Payne Whitney, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., John A. Spoor, president of the Chicago stockyards, and James R. Morse, who was elected president of the company. Already the company has obtained control of buttermaking plants with an output of 100,000 pounds a day. It is said that several large milk concerns, including the Bordens, which supply the New York market, will be included.

The Pennsylvania railroad's self investigating committee reported to the directors that the testimony of witnesses before the interstate commerce commission does not prove that there have been undue preferences either as to coal cars or sidings. The Audit company of New York has been authorized to investigate the company's record of car distribution for the last five years, and that work is now in progress. The committee promises to investigate every phase of the subject.

Express Companies Divide Up.

In response to pressure by stockholders of the United States Express company, of which Senator Platt of New York is president, assurances have been given by the management that dividends would be doubled at the next period. Since 1901 4 per cent has been paid.

Wells, Fargo & Co., yielding to similar pressure, announced an increase of 2 per cent in its dividend rate and a semiannual payment of 5 per cent July 16. The malcontents still insist that the company is earning more than 30 per cent and has a surplus of $20,000,000.

McClure Seceders Buy Magazine.

A controlling interest in the American Magazine, formerly Leslie's Monthly, has been purchased by the Phillips Publishing company, which was recently organized by former members of the editorial staff of McClure's Magazine. John S. Phillips, for many years McClure's junior partner, will be the directing head of the new publishing house and will have associated with him J. Lincoln Steffens, Ida M. Tarbell, Ray Stannard Baker, F. P. Dunne (Mr. Dooley), William Allen White, A. A. Boyden and others.

South African Cotton Good.

The experiments in cotton planting in southern Natal have proved very satisfactory so far. Twenty-five acres yielded forty bales, and the quality is excellent. Half of the yield has been prepared for export.

LABOR

Fall River Wages Advanced.

The cotton manufacturers of Fall River, Mass., put into effect July 2 the wage scale of 1904, which was cut 12½ per cent in July of that year. The increase concerns 20,000 mill operatives, and it is said that the mill owners hope this will bring back the families of skilled operators who migrated to Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Canada in 1904.

Labor Scarce in Iron Trade.

The western farmers are not the only people to suffer from a scarcity of labor this summer. According to the Iron Age, the iron and allied industries are having great difficulty to find men enough to meet the demands of consumers. Many of the ironworkers are inclined to insist upon a vacation period at this season. In the meantime orders for the heavier classes of finished materials continue to roll in.

New York's Labor Bulletin.

During the first quarter of this year the average earnings of 333,000 workmen in New York state, according to the bulletin of the labor department, were $2.33 a day, or $212 for the quarter. No women or minors are included in this statement. The average for this period was $3 as compared with $2.88 for the same period last year. The extraordinary demand for labor is not confined to the building industry, where it is most marked, but is felt in all lines. The membership in labor unions now aggregates 394,270, an increase of 11,034 in the half year. The estimated cost of new buildings in New York city alone during the first quarter was $50,000,000.

Drunken Guards Shoot Miners.

One miner was killed and five injured as the result of a battle between drunken guards and striking miners at Bradley, O. The row was started by a group of guards firing into the air to celebrate the arrival of a quantity of beer, with which they were going to "celebrate." The main body of the guards heard the shooting and, thinking that the miners were rioting, began firing into the homes of the men.

Pittsburg Wages High.

Pittsburg reports a reaction from the speculative in favor of the industrial market, but to the comfort of the rest of the community. The payrolls of the Pittsburg district are said to be larger than ever before and would be higher if workers could be obtained. This is especially true in the steel and coke industries, and negroes are being imported from the south as laborers.

SOCIOLOGICAL

An Appeal to Millionaires.

Much attention has been attracted by an article in the North American Review by an anonymous writer who signs with the letter X because of the boldness and plausibility of the appeal therein made to American millionaires. The writer appeals to millionaires in the interests of private property itself to encourage laws that would make the accumulation of perhaps a million dollars the outside ability of an individual.

An Anti-Child Slavery League.

A new movement to organize public sentiment against the crime of child labor in this country has been started by the Woman's Home Companion, which is urging its readers to become members of the Anti-Child Slavery league. There is no fee, and names are not to be mentioned in any connection without permission. In the June issue John Spargo, author of "The Bitter Cry of the Children," says that the army of child slaves is surely 2,000,000 or 3,000,000 at the present time and that the number has been increasing instead of decreasing in the last few years.

Children's Hospital Assured.

A $250,000 seaside hospital for children afflicted with tuberculosis of the bones and glands, in which President Roosevelt, Jacob Rills and many New York charity workers have been interested, is now assured through the subscription of the $125,000 required to secure a like conditional amount promised by John D. Rockefeller. Up to the last day of June the committee still lacked $22,000. Urgent appeals made in the papers brought the matter to the attention of some wealthy person, who notified Rills that he would make up the deficiency. The money was given on condition that the name of the donor be kept secret as long as he lives. It is said that there are 60,000 children sufferers of bone tuberculosis in this country and 5,000 in New York city alone. It is hoped that a chain of such hospitals may be established along the Atlantic coast.

SCIENTIFIC

To Investigate Earthquakes.

Secretary Metcalf of the department of commerce and labor has ordered the coast survey to make an investigation to ascertain whether there has been any horizontal displacement of the earth's crust on the Pacific coast as a result of the earthquake of April 18 last. This will be necessary in order to rectify existing charts and maps. In India, after the earthquake of 1897, revision of the triangulation showed a difference in distance of twenty-five feet and of thirteen feet in height.

Professor Omori of Japan, who is investigating the effects of the earthquake in San Francisco, says that if accurate observations of the smaller shocks which have followed the great shock had been made it would be easy to predict when the earth would again tremble. He predicts that small shocks will continue to occur for two years or more, but that there will not be another great shock in that part of the country for fifty years.

Report on Tuberculosis.

Dr. Lawrence F. Flick, director of the Henry Phipps Institute for the Study, Prevention and Treatment of Tuberculosis, and his staff have published an exhaustive report of their researches for two years, containing the latest revelations of science concerning the disease commonly known as consumption. It is found that negroes are far more susceptible than whites and that the class designated as houseworkers has the greatest number of victims.

The negroes are found to be particularly dangerous to the community, because they constitute the servant class and are brought into intimate association with other people. As a general rule there is a close association between the death rate of tuberculosis and indoor life, hardship and want.

Physician Abandons Radium. Dr. Hericourt, a famous Paris doctor, says he has abandoned radium as a therapeutic agent. Instead of being curative of cancer, he asserts that simple wounds have been made cancerous by the use of radium, and in tuberculosis its efficiency is no better than sun rays and far more dangerous.

MISCELLANEOUS

Fatalities of the Fourth.

The Chicago Tribune estimated the number of Fourth of July fatalities in the entire country at 51 dead and 3,551 injured.

Cholera at Manila.

An epidemic of cholera has broken out at Manila which threatens to be worse than any epidemic since the occupation by America. Over 100 deaths have already occurred, and the natives will not co-operate with the authorities to stop the spread, as they fear fumigation and quarantine.

Wilkesbarre Wins Prize.

The Gesang Verein Concordia of Wilkesbarre, Pa., carried off the Kaiser prize at the saengerfest at Newark, N. J., after an interesting struggle. The test song was a setting by Julius Lorenz, conductor of the festival, of "Hans und Grete."

Seattle Anarchist's Plot.

An anarchist named Rosenberg was arrested on July 6 at Altona, Prussia, who was believed to be plotting the death of the Kaiser. A house in Seattle, Wash., which Rosenberg recently left was searched on a German tip, and a bomb making outfit was found.

Alton Road Guilty of Rebating.

A jury in the federal court at Chicago has found the Chicago and Alton Railroad company guilty of granting rebates to the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger packing house. A motion for a new trial was heard.

Accidents.

A steamer train from Plymouth, England, was derailed at high speed near Salisbury. Of the forty-two passengers, American tourists, twenty-three were killed and nine injured, while four trainmen met death.

The famous Church of St. Michael was burned at Hamburg, Germany, July 3. Four of five steeple workmen perished.

Deaths.

Professor Henry A. Ward, the noted naturalist of Chicago, was struck by an automobile at Buffalo and instantly killed.

Jules Adolphe Breton died at Paris. He was a noted French painter.

Henry D. Perky, the originator of shredded wheat and the breakfast food fad, died at Baltimore.

Manuel Garcia, the veteran English teacher of singing, died at London.

OPERATION AVOIDED

EXPERIENCE OF MISS MERKLEY

She Was Told That an Operation Was Inevitable. How She Escaped It.

When a physician tells a woman suffering with serious feminine trouble that an operation is necessary, the very thought of the knife and the operating table strikes terror to her heart, and our hospitals are full of women coming for just such operations.

There are cases where an operation is the only resource, but when one considers the great number of cases of menacing female troubles cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, no woman should submit to one without first trying the Vegetable Compound and writing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice, which is free.

Miss Margaret Merkley, of 375 Third Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, aching pains through the pelvic organs, bearing down pains and cramps compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said I had a female trouble and ulceration and advised an operation. To this I strongly objected and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The ulceration quickly healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared and I am once more strong, vigorous and well."

Female troubles are steadily on the increase among women. If the monthly periods are very painful, or too frequent and excessive—if you have pain or swelling low down in the left side, bearing-down pains, don't neglect yourself; try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

SENATOR CRANE'S WEDDING
FREE FROM OSTENTATION.

BOSTON, July 11.—Senator W. Murray Crane and his bride, whom he married yesterday afternoon at Manchester-by-the-Sea, arrived in Boston about 5 o'clock last night, having driven over the road in an auto, and put up at the Somerset where Mr. Crane embarked a suite some days ago. It was not the bridal suite, nor the state suite, but one of the simpler suites in which the house abounds. Today they will probably go to Dalton by auto, where a great reception awaits them.

Few weddings along the North Shore have been so shorn of ostentation, although there have seldom been greater opportunities for a large wedding than that of yesterday, because of the families, the connection and the association of both families. For many years Miss Boardman was a reigning belle in the social set at Washington, where the Boardmans make their winter home and where they have been lavish in their hospitalities. The leaders in the executive, the diplomatic and the social life in the Capital city have been guests at the Boardman mansion, but despite all this the wedding was of a quiet, formal nature, and less than 40, including the immediate relatives of the senator and his bride, saw the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Roland Cotton Smith of St. John's church at Washington, assisted by the Rev. W. H. Dewart of Christ Church, Hyde Park, the Episcopal service with the ring being used.

Because of the birth of a girl, last night to Mrs. W. H. Crane, Jr., the senator's son was not present. Wyndcliffe mansion was transformed into a bower of beauty for the wedding. It has a picturesque location only a short distance from the famous Essex Country club. It is perched high on a hill surrounded by tall pines, and the long avenues which wind to it are bordered with shrubs and dotted with flower beds. In front of the mansion are many beautiful beds of rare flowers, now in the full of their summer glory. Commanding a view of the sea and shore the mansion has been the scene of many of the brilliant social functions. It was here that Miss Alice Roosevelt was a guest before she became the bride of Congressman Nicholas Longworth, and here many entertainments were given in honor of "the first girl of the land."

The wedding took place in a bower, with the bay window as a background, and white and pink roses were used in profusion, forming the scheme of decorations. The bride was given away by her father. She looked splendid in a gown of white satin, cut princess style. It was trimmed with rare old point lace, which had been used on her mother's wedding gown. She wore a long tulle veil caught up with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of rare orchids. An orchestra furnished music during the ceremony and the wedding breakfast which followed.

As her sister's only attendant, Miss Mabel Boardman was gowned in white. Russells lace over silk, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Mrs. Boardman, the mother of the bride, wore a robe of white duchesse lace.

The display of wedding gifts was one of the finest ever seen on the North Shore. The Roosevelts were among the long list of donors, while United States senators sent many tokens, the diplomatic legations sent gifts, and there were many costly wedding presents in bronzes, silver, cut glass and china from friends in all sections of the United States, and many from across the water.

The guests at the wedding included only the immediate relatives of both the senator and his bride and in the number were Mr. and Mrs. George St. John Sheffield of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Boardman's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mosle of New York City, Col. and Mrs. Mason Tyler of Plainfield, N. J., Mrs. von Rotterberg Phelps of Ten Eyck, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boardman of Cleveland, O., Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Plunkett of Hinsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Coit, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Pomeroy of Pittsfield, Mrs. Zenas Marshall Crane,

Senator Crane's mother, Miss Clara L. Crane, his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Zenas Crane and sons, Zenas Marshall Crane and Charles K. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Bates of Morristown, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. F. After the ceremony Senator and Mrs. Crane received the congratulations of their relatives and a large number of congratulatory telegrams were received from all over the country, including a cablegram from Congressman and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, who are now in Europe.

Late in the afternoon Senator and Mrs. Crane left Manchester in the senator's large touring car for Boston.

MUST KEEP ACCOUNT OF THE AUTOMOBILES.

One of the new sets of rules promulgated by the Massachusetts state highway commission, concerning the regulation and operation of motor vehicles, hits the manufacturers and dealers which include the garages, rather hard in that it compels them to keep a pretty thorough account of every car operated by the garage. The new rule reads as follows:

"Until such time as the commission shall supply number plates to manufacturers and dealers with letters thereon, following the register number, or authorize the use of such plates, in addition to the register number plates assigned by the commission, each registered manufacturer and dealer shall be supplied by the commission with a set of plates, in duplicate, each having a letter thereon of the same height as the numerals on the number plates. Two of said plates, with the same letter on each, shall be attached to each automobile when it leaves the garage, stable, shop or place of business of such a manufacturer or dealer. These plates shall be placed to the right of the number plates, in the same horizontal line with said number plates and adjacent thereto, and so arranged as to appear to be a part of the distinguishing number or mark for said automobile. When the commission shall supply or authorize the use of number plates with letter following the register, two register number plates with the same letter on each plate shall be displayed on each automobile under the conditions and in the manner hereinbefore provided. Every registered manufacturer and dealer shall keep in a book a proper record of every automobile owned by or under the control of any manufacturer or dealer which leaves his garage, stable, shop or place of business."

This last provision makes it necessary for the dealer to record the register number and letter, the operator's license number, the date, the time of leaving the garage, the operator's signature, the date and time of the return and the signature of the operator who returns the car. second base for the first time during his career. Reynolds didn't play in the game and opportunity was not given to slide him. It is stated that he is an infidel but from information gathered on Saturday it is safe to say that he will be played in the outfield. Reynolds has been urged to go into league ball for several seasons but has always been content to remain with the semi-professionals. This year, however, he has signified his willingness to come in with the Lawrence club and it is likely that he will be seen in the game when the team returns for a game with Manchester at Glen Forest on Friday.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors have nounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only Catarrhical cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

LIFE SAVING DEVICE OF AN AU-
TOIST STRANDED DOWN IN JERSEY.

"I find," said a man who has not yet come to own a buz wagon, "that automobile tires are sometimes filled with other things than air. Down on the Jersey coast the other day I saw a man filling a tire with sand."

"This tire had apparently been for the men in the auto appeared to be cool and competent men who knew what they were about—became broken in such a manner that it could not be repaired to stand inflation on the spot, but they filled it with sand. At the place where they were when the tire collapsed the road ran close to the ocean front, and they took the tire off the wheel and one of the men climbed with it down the bulkhead to the beach and there he set to work.

"When he had worked in a lot of sand he would hold the tire up and shake the sand down in it and then he would put in some more, and so on till he had the tire filled.

"This was something new to me, but a friend tells me he has seen it done before and that sand in the tire is better than nothing, that it will cushion the tire in some measure at least and keep the machine from pounding down on that wheel with its sheer dead weight."

LAWRENCE

BATTERY C LEAVES FOR CAMP.

Battery C, Captain Charles F. Sargent in command, leaves this city for the camp of the First Battalion Field Artillery, M. V. M., at Ipswich on Saturday next for the annual eight days' tour of duty to be made together with Battery A of Easton and B of Worcester.

After several months of indecision on the part of those in authority Ipswich was finally selected as the place best fitted for the annual state tour of duty.

The local command will leave on Saturday morning at an early hour as possible pitching their camp Saturday night on the grounds of the Second Corps of Cadets at Boxford. They will reach Ipswich on Sunday remaining until a week from Saturday when the return will be made by special train.

The three individual commands from Boston, Worcester and this city under Major L. N. Duchesney will muster 300 men.

Captain Sargent has issued an order for his men to assemble in the state armory on Amesbury street at 5 o'clock on Saturday morning uniformed in accordance with the following section of the same order:

"Working suits, campaign hat, leggings, russet belt, khaki shirt, black shoes, great coat, (collar roll) except mounted men, who will carry the great coat on the cante of the saddle. Haversack and canteen will be worn.

"Each member will see that his artillery pack is ready for shipment on or before Thursday evening, July 12th, and will carry in the following: Khaki suit, red blanket, rubber blanket, red sack at least one change of underclothing, towels, soap, clothing and shoe brushes also all necessary toilet articles.

"Every opportunity having been given members who could not attend this camp, to ask for their discharge, no one will be excused from this tour of duty. Our entire membership must be present the entire week, unless prevented by unforeseen circumstances."

NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY HELD OUTING.

The Lawrence Natural History society held a business meeting and outing Saturday afternoon at the summer home of its president, R. H. Barlow at Canobie lake, and as is always the rule when Mr. Barlow is host, a most enjoyable program was carried out.

The event was a red-letter one in the history of the society, for it marked the success of the efforts of members to raise a subscription fund of $250.00 for the support of public rooms and also the election into the society of over fifty new members, thus doubling at once the membership list. The report of subscriptions collected by D. W. Hoff was submitted and a vote of thanks was tendered that gentleman for his valuable services to the society. After the election of the active members, the names of eleven persons were presented for honorary membership. Of the latter seven were survivors of a group of fifty well known citizens who contributed to the purchase of the Coolidge collection of birds now in Library hall, for the Natural History society. Their names are, T. A. Emmons, Peter Hollman, Joseph Shattuck, Henry Chandler, William Oswald, Samuel Robinson and Samuel Stearns. Mrs. Howland, widow of the late Dr. A. W. Howland, who has generously given her husband's valuable collection of minerals and Indian relics, and Mrs. Kummer and Joshua Pierce completed the number. A committee consisting of President Barlow, F. H. Sillabie, A. D. Marble, D. W. Hoff and R. A. Hale was empowered to consult with the White Fund trustees and arrange for the securing of rooms. A list of the subscribers to the fund will shortly be published.

The following are the names of the new members: B. M. Sheridan, A. B. Sutherland, James D. Horne, Dr. W. A. Gabeler, M. J. Sullivan, W. A. Whitney, Leonard E. Bennink, Albert I. Couch, August Sonntag, John J. Mahoney, J. H. Helberg, Charles A. Stone, Mrs. C. A. Stone, A. B. Emmons, Dr. F. E. McAllister, E. E. Rowell, L. C. Moore, Peter M. Sweeney, William H. Glover, George W. Hall, L. J. O'Leary, Edith Mank, John A. McGilvery, Arthur E. Baker, E. M. Sanborn, Clinton O. Andrews, F. M. Andrew, H. J. Stanchfield, Byron Trell, John P. Kane, Justin E. Varney, G. M. Nickerson, M. H. Barker, Boston, C. J. Sargent, Methuen, Mrs. Harney Coupe, Mrs. G. W. Dinsmore, Mrs. Lewis A. Foye, Miss Cora Rogers, Mrs. N. E. Russell, Mrs. Esther Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bevington, A. X. Dooley, Mrs. G. W. Dodson, Miss Emma Stewart, A. R. Saunders, Mrs. Clara Towle, Mrs. Ellen Brooks, Charles Wainwright, Mrs. A. E. Mack, Miss Elizabeth Beane, Miss Josephine Barlow.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH HOLDS ANNUAL PICNIC

The parishioners of the First Baptist church held their annual picnic at Dow's grove, Canobie lake, Wednesday.

The weather was man was generous and a large crowd enjoyed the day at the beautiful picnic grounds. Over 200 people left on the special train at 8.45 a. m., while fully 100 more went up during the afternoon.

A splendid program of sports was run off and a large part of the crowd watched the young athletes perform, while many others enjoyed the boating, which was free. Bowling was also a very popular amusement and a prize was offered for the lady and gentleman making the highest score during the day.

The picnicers brought their lunches, but the committee furnished hot coffee during the dinner hour, and lemonade was served throughout the day.

The party returned at 5 o'clock. The committees who arranged for the affair were: Sports—J. T. Warburton and T. H. Fairbairn; lemonade—George E. Murray's class; coffee, Miss Sadie Morgan's class; boats, Charles Merrill, Wilbur Emmons.

The results of the day's sports follow:

Fifty yard dash for boys, won by O. Smith; Fred Churchill, second.

Fifty yards dash for girls, won by Margaret Sloat; Florence Ball, second.

Arithmetic race, for young women, won by Miss E. E. Churchill.

Potato race for girls, won by Ruth Slinchey.

Potato race, young ladies, won by Miss Minnie Booth.

Three-legged race, won by O. Smith and Fred Churchill.

One hundred yards dash for men, won by Otto Nixon; J. T. Warburton, second.

Wheelbarrow race for boys, won by Magoon and Brown.

Better Cigar Values at Lower Prices Than Ever
Sold Before

National Cigar Stands give the smoker just what every man would get if he could—wholesale rates on retail purchases.

Everybody knows how much he saves when he is able to buy a suit of clothes or a pair of shoes, or a gun or anything else at the wholesaler's price. He saves the retailer's profit; usually 20 to 30 per cent.

The Greatest Retail Cigar Outlet on Earth

With 2,000 established retail stores to provide cigars for this concern becomes a power in the tobacco market big enough to own its own brands, control its own factories and be its own producer! Each of the 2,000 stores is thereby virtually a partner in a tremendous cigar-producing business. Each gets its goods direct and at low cost—paying no jobbing profits, no fancy dividends, no expenses of traveling salesmen. It can and does retail at the usual wholesale price—or even less.

This is because all the 2,000 drug stores which conduct National Cigar Stands concentrate their cigar-buying in a single co-operative concern, which is thus given Boot and shoe race, O. Smith first; I. Brown, second.

The result of the bowling for the day showed N. O. Magoon first gentleman; Miss Richardson, first ladies. The feature of the morning was the ball game between teams captained by Paul Lyall and O. Smith of the junior league. The game was won by the former team by a score of 9 to 5. In the afternoon game T. H. Fairbairn's team defeated the team captained by J. T. Warburton by a score of 8 to 7.

A REDUCTION IN THE CITY TAX RATE.

The assessors announced the tax rate for 1906 Monday as $16 per $1000. This is a reduction of 80 cents from last year's rate and is the lowest rate the city has had for many years. An increase of $4,863,841 was made in the valuation, which is now $51,048,809.

There is a gain of 1541 in the number of polls over last year.

The tax rate in 1895 was $16; from 1896 to 1903 it was $15.60, in 1903 and 1904 it was $16.40 and in 1905 it was $16.80.

OUTING TO REVERE BY L. C. MOORE'S CLERKS.

The clerks of L. C. Moore's department store enjoyed their annual outing Wednesday. Mr. Moore tenders a picnic of some sort to his employees every year and each succeeding event always surpasses the previous one.

Yesterday the party journeyed to Revere beach and enjoyed the delights of Wonderland. About 100 employees left on the special car at 8.10 from the transfer station, reaching Revere about 11 o'clock. On their arrival, Charles S. Ross took charge of the party and the day was spent according to plan which he had previously arranged and which the rest of the employees heartily endorsed.

The morning was spent in bathing. The surf was not strong and the bathing was hugely enjoyed by all. The sports which were arranged to occupy the afternoon were not held as there was not sufficient time to see the sights and carry out the program also.

The party divided after dining at the Wonderland hotel and some went through the hundred mysteries of the amusements, while a large number enjoyed the excellent dancing at the large casino. They united again at 6 o'clock and had supper in the hotel restaurant, and returned, leaving the beach at 8.30, arriving in Lawrence at 11 o'clock.

Among those who took the trip were: Misses Nora Curran, Margaret Watson, Marie Fish, Nellie McEneaney, Kate Towle, Grace Towle, Anna Smith, Zehna Gosson, Margaret Lopiano, Kittle Collins, Lottie Connors, Rose Winn, Ruth Blinn, Vina Lacallade, Lena Donovan, Elizabeth Morrisette, Gus Beck, Elvira McCabe, Mary Demars, Mary Burke, Nellie Burke, Margaret Bannan, Alice Watson, Jessie McGregor, Agnes Foley, Grace Daley, Mary Mulcahey, Kittle White, Olive Doulin, Leah Doulin, Mrs. Doodly, Mary Dempsey, Rose Thibau, Lottie Mack, Mary Egan, Anna Morin.

Messrs. Elmer Haynes, Herbert Lyons, Bert Easty, Charles Ross, George Duhamel.

TELEGRAM LOSES A VALUED MEMBER OF STAFF.

Mrs. Pearl (Nighman) Dobson, who during the past two years has been connected with the Telegram, died at the Lawrence General hospital Thursday.

Mrs. Dobson entered the hospital for treatment on Monday evening, July 2nd. The day following she underwent an operation for a trouble of long standing. She bore up bravely through the effects of the operation and every hope was entertained for her recovery but as time wore on, a change set in and she gradually grew worse until the end came this forenoon.

She was born at Kent, Ohio, March 17, 1874, the eldest child of Albert and Emma Nighman. In 1890, at her home in Kent, she was united in marriage to Alfred S. Dobson of this city and, coming to Lawrence with her husband, the greater part of her married life was passed here. The late home is at 78 Bradford street from which place the funeral will be held, the day to be announced later.

There are left three children, Lyle E., Carmen and David; a mother in Kent, Ohio, a brother, Ray in Pittsburg, Pa., and a sister, Helena, who coming east a little more than a month ago was with her during her last illness.

She was a communicant of Grace Episcopal church where she attended regularly. Through her connection with the Telegram she became affiliated with the New England Women's Press club and did considerable work for several of the Boston dailies. She was a member of the Lawrence Mother's club and several other organizations.

The sympathy of innumerable friends and acquaintances goes out in fullest measure to those who mourn the loss of a daughter, sister and mother. Burial will be made in Bellevue cemetery.

THE KITTREDGE OBSEQUIES

The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret Kittredge, wife of Gilbert H. Kittredge, was held Thursday afternoon from family home, 9 Valley St., and many friends throughout the city gathered to pay their final tribute of love to her whose memory will be long cherished by all. In attendance were friends and relatives from Boston, Worcester, Nashua, N. H., Lowell, Haverhill, and other places outside the city, as well as representatives from the various lodges of which the deceased was a member.

The body reposed in a grey brocade plush casket, silver trimmed, and the plate bore the simple inscription:

MARGARET KITTREDGE

The casket was completely covered with a most beautiful display of floral tributes, including the following: Mound of white pinks, family, and Miss Nellie Wakelid; mound, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kittredge; spray white pinks, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Josselyn; white roses, Mrs. J. H. COMPLIMENTS OF THE SEASON.

The annual Fair season was at hand, and the neighbors for miles around were preparing to attend.

"Well, Sam," said the wife of a prosperous landowner to her rustic protegee, "your master and I are going up to the town for the Cattle Show."

"Oh," replied the boy, "I'm sure I hope you'll take the rust prize, 'm—that I dew."

NEW BRACELETS AND NECKLACES

From the Jeweler's Circular Weekly.

A charming new bracelet displays an open design of fancy ovals formed of a band of green tourmaline interwoven with a similar band of diamonds.

Genuine oxblood coral from Japan is shown in large graduated sizes of beads forming a necklace of great richness and depth of color and supplying a unique effect in strings of beads.

Rare rose pink coral and large beads of pink, shading from deep to light, are among ornaments for summer wear with white costumes where a touch of color is desired.

A diamond necklace of surpassing beauty is formed of diamond clusters of good sizes, each with a large central stone, from which depend large diamonds, with little space between them.

Pear shaped diamonds fringe a costly necklace, in which a chain of large diamonds extends across the front.

Parasol handles and handles of the fashionable sun umbrellas take on some odd and interesting shapes in carved wood.

Some very rich silk and lace covered parasols have square cut club handles of gold or silver, which are to be desired in this important article.

Sets composed of a handsome scarf pin with sleeve links to match come in little silk lined cases and are most attractive. Oblong stones of green or ruby are shown framed in diamonds.

A diamond scarf pin has the head in the form of a circle of diamonds, with a pearl set free on the pin in the centre of the circle with a space around it.

Very handsome is a diamond pendant forming a brooch, with platinum chains depending that are finished with diamond leaves instead of drop stones. From the stem of the maiden-hair fern curved to a circle, with the spreading leaves ornamenting the space from the upper end and from the curved in the lower end, touching the leaves, the chains depend.

For cut flowers there is a magnificent tall cut glass vase of flaring shape on a richly decorated silver base.

The long, rather heavy handles of sun umbrellas show such designs as the entire figure of a mouse, a cat and dogs of various breeds, and as large as can be conveniently utilized for the purpose, sitting upright on the top of the handles.

Handsome lemonade pitchers of cut glass, come in conjunction with silver, by way of embellishment, which adds an appreciable air of richness and solidity. In some the entire top and handle of silver, with cut glass bowl and base, or the bowl and handle and top may be of the glass on a silver stand.

AMUSEMENTS.

WONDERLAND'S ENDLESS CHAIN.

Every day now furnishes an example of the powerful, magnetic popularity of Wonderland, the latest development in twentieth century amusements at Revere beach. The broad scope of the plan developed there for public entertainment on a large scale is fully appreciated on a casual visit, but there is such a seemingly endless chain of novelties that one does not feel satisfied with a single visit. True, it requires but one taste of the feast to delight any amusement epicure, and all are welcome to help themselves to their heart's content; but patrons generally leave the grounds with their minds fixed upon some date when they can return and see the things they neglected.

It has been said that the beach amusement business is a "gamble with the weather." The varied quality of the climatic conditions being served up this season so far would prove the wisdom of this observation at some resorts. The far-sightedness of the promoters of Wonderland, however, has reduced to a minimum this element in the matter of comfort for their patrons. Fair weather or otherwise, the crowds stay right along, simply going from one shelter to another if it rains, and ready to resume their amusements on the Board Walk the moment the skies clear.

This week's program for the open air circus is particularly fruitful and has for headliners the Duffin-Redgay Troupe of aerialists, whose triple somersaults and looping-the-loop are sensational in the highest degree.

The Salem Cadet Band concerts are as much of a feature of the free entertainments as ever, and the model ball room, too, with Poole's orchestra, is an unending magnet.

Wonderland's big shows, Fire and Flames, Hell Gate, the Shoot the Chutes, Thompson Scenic Railway, Indian Congress and Wild West, Infant Incubators, Princess Trickle (the equine paradox), Circus Swing, Fatal Wedding, Japanese Village, Beautiful Orient, Hale's Tours and Love's Journey are doing a record-breaking business.

The crowning feature of all at Wonderland is the electrical illumination at night, which makes of the new million-dollar pleasure resort a veritable fairy realm.

ADVANCE STORIES ON NEXT WEEK'S ATTRACTIONS AT GLEN FOREST.

"The Belle of New York" is scheduled for all next week at Glen Forest with a company of twenty-two beside a large chorus of pretty girls. With the new calcium lights recently installed at the Forest the scenic effects of this play ought to be truly magnificent, as they are said to bring entirely new scenery with them, including the scene of Narragansett Pier by moonlight.

The chorus work is said to be good as well as the solo parts.

Ladies and children will be admitted free to the Monday afternoon performance as usual.

Thursday, July 19, will be a gala day at the Forest as on that day the management have arranged to have two illuminated balloon ascensions with a gift shower in the afternoon and fireworks in the evening.

BALLOON ASCENSIONS AND FIREWORKS AND GIFT SHOWER AT GLEN FOREST.

Thursday, July 19, will be a gala day at Glen Forest. On that day arrangements have been made for a monster celebration, including two balloon ascensions, a beautiful display of fireworks and a shower of gifts from the skies.

Immediately following the afternoon performance the first ascension will take place, accompanied by the gift shower in which thousands of gifts will be thrown into the air immediately after the balloon leaves the earth—gifts that will please the children and the older folk also.

The illuminated ascension in the evening will follow the evening performance at the open air theatre, and a large and beautiful display of fireworks will be set off.

The three Patnaud Brothers who will make the ascensions are well known wherever ballooning is popular. During the past 20 years they have made names for themselves for courage and daring. They bring with them two large 75 foot balloons in which they will make the ascension. The brothers have a standing challenge open to any hot air balloonist to race for a purse of from $150 to $500 a side.

In their many years' experience they have exhibited at all the recent world's fairs, and have won many air races, and the Boston and Northern Street Ry. management are to be congratulated upon securing such talent for the exhibitions.

WONDERLAND'S WONDROUS POPULARITY.

Evidently the promoters of Wonderland, Greater Boston's million dollar electric city-by-the-sea, "built better than they knew" when they took it upon themselves as a business proposition to cater to the pleasure-seeking public of Boston, Greater Boston and New England at Revere Beach. It was a foregone conclusion that a summer amusement resort constructed on somewhat similar lines to those adopted at Corey Island for New Yorkers would be likely to appeal to Bostonians. But the appeal found a response far beyond the most sanguine anticipations, and Wonderland's popularity has steadily increased, to put it mildly, by leaps and bounds.

This week, as a result of the closing of the schools and the hot wave, the daily attendance jumped from four to five figures, averaging 10,000 early in the week, and for Fourth of July a record-breaking patronage, estimated at from 50,000 to 75,000. No wonder therefore, that Manager Floyd C. Thompson now wears "the smile that won't come off" and that the future looks bright for Wonderland.

Jack London, the author, was introduced one day to a musician.

"I, too, am a musician in a small way," London said. "My musical talent was once the means of saving my life."

"How was that?" the musician asked.

"There was a great flood in our town in my boyhood," replied London.

"When the water struck our house my father got on a bed and floated with the stream until he was rescued."

"And you?" said the musician.

"Well," said London, "I accompanied him on the piano."

CALLIOPE IN CHURCH.

In a small village in Iowa the congregation of one of the churches decided to purchase a pipe organ. Thereupon one venerable member raised terrific opposition. He became excited. He denounced the scheme as unholy and monstrous.

"But, Uncle John," said one young lady "how do you know so much about pipe organs? I didn't know that you had ever seen one."

"Well, perhaps I hadn't ought to talk so knowingly," admitted the objecting member, "seeing as how I never saw but one myself."

"And where was that?" was asked.

"Down to Council Bluffs in a circus parade!"—Kansas Times.

When the sweet peas come into bloom cut their flowers off as soon as they begin to fade. This prevents them from forming seed, and the plants, in their efforts to perpetuate their kind, will straightway produce more flowers, and keep on doing this as long as interfered with.

In this manner flowers are secured throughout the entire season. But if seed is allowed to form you will have comparatively few flowers the latter part of summer.

RAKING GRASS AFTER MOWING.

From the Owing Magazine.

Some persons advise raking after each mowing. I do not, because the clippings drop down in the grass and form a mulch, which I consider a great benefit. They also help to fertilize the soil.

The lawn that is not mowed often enough will not look well after you have been over it with the mower, because there was growth enough partially to hide the sward upon which it falls. This will wither and turn brown in a day or two and greatly detract from the beauty of the lawn. But if you keep your lawn well mowed—and that means going over it at least three times a week in ordinary seasons—the amount clipped off at each mowing will be so slight that there will not be enough of it to show. Let the knife blades be set high enough to leave at least two inches of the foliage.
